ClimFishCon2020

Abstract submission

Abstracts must be prepared in the prescribed format and submitted online though the Conference website, www.climfishcon.org. The preference for oral or poster presentation should be indicated by the applicant during the submission process. Authors are responsible for any spelling, grammatical or typographical errors contained in the submitted abstracts. If you have any queries or problems with abstract submission, please do not hesitate to contact us by email to climfishcon@gmail.com. The Corresponding author will receive an email to confirm that the abstract has been accepted and whether it will be an Oral or Poster presentation. You will be provided an abstract reference number, which should be quoted in all correspondence. Deadline for abstract submission is 1st December 2019. Once the abstract is accepted, at least one of the authors must register for the Conference and present the work at the Conference. Abstracts must be prepared in the format given below:

- Abstracts should be written in English and provided in DOC format.(DOCX format is not accepted) Users with latest version of Microsoft Word may 'Save as' Microsoft 97-2003 Document and upload the file (Maximum of 2MB). Please do not upload your Abstract in any other file format.

- Abstract title: Capitalised Arial 12 Bold, Centred, Single space, Not more than 175 characters including spaces.

- Author name(s): Arial 11 Bold, Centred, Single space (One line space from the title)

- Author affiliation with Department, Institution, Address, City, Postal code and Country: Arial 11, Centred, Single space (One line space from the Author name)

- Abstract: Arial 10 justified, 350 words.

- Keywords (Include up to 5 keywords): Arial 10 Italics, left justified (One line space from the Abstract)

- Corresponding Author: Tel: + ; E-mail address: